

Health Insurance Promissory Contract

Cal Poly, San Luis Obispo, requires all its international students to maintain adequate health insurance throughout the duration of their visa status. To complete your international portfolio for admission, you must promise to purchase an approved health insurance policy. This signed health insurance promissory contract must be submitted no later than the deadline listed below for your applied term.

Fall quarter - April 1	Winter quarter - September 1
------------------------	------------------------------

The international student advisor (telephone # (805) 756-1477) must approve your health insurance policy before you will be able to register for classes. To be approved, your insurance policy must meet the following criteria:

- the medical benefit is at least $50,000 per illness or injury; and the co-payment does not exceed 25%;
- the repatriation benefit is at least $7,500;
- the medical evacuation benefit is at least $10,000;
- the deductible does not exceed $200 per illness or injury.

Coverage is required throughout the duration of your visa status at Cal Poly, San Luis Obispo. Specific details and information about the insurance requirements will be sent to you by the university international student advisor (see phone # above).

If you sign the promissory contract below, but do not comply with the insurance criteria as listed above, you will not be allowed to register for classes.

Health Insurance Promissory Contract

I promise to provide the university international student advisor with proof of an approved health insurance policy. I understand that my policy must be approved by the university international student advisor (telephone number: (805) 756-1477) and that I will not be eligible to register for classes if I do not comply.
