When submitting your Residence Reclassification Form, you must also submit copies of the following documents:

- Most current state driver's license or ID card.
- Most current state voter registration.
- Most current state vehicle registration for cars owned or operated in California.
- Most current state and federal tax returns, with W-2s for the last tax year (for student).
- Proof of bank accounts with a branch located within California and date opened.
- Last three years federal income tax returns for parents. (Only page 1 of Form 1040 needed for each year.)

Failure to provide this documentation may delay your residence reclassification determination.
